

You're invited to dinner with Anthony Ognjan, D.O., FACP

Chair of the

Michigan Osteopathic Political Action Committee

Learn about the importance of political awareness
AND view a few gruesome ID cases

Dr. Ognjan is the Chief of Infectious Disease at Mt. Clemens Regional Medical Center

Please welcome this MSUCOM alum on Wednesday, November 9th at 5:00 p.m.

MSUCOM Macomb University Center UC3 Room 208

MSUCOM DMC and EL invited to attend in person or via broadcast

Event hosted by:

Michigan Osteopathic Association Student Liaison Committee
The Michigan Osteopathic Political Action Committee

RSVP by Wednesday, November 2nd.

Include campus; live lecture at MUC-UC3-208, or via broadcast: DMC-G029 or EL-E105
(Dinner served at all campuses)

RSVP to an MOA Student Representative or
Jennifer Miller, MOA Liaison: jmiller@mi-osteopathic.org

Meet botfly!

www.mi-osteopathic.org